

JAL Group Applies for Revision of IATA International Fares

Tokyo, December 26, 2006: Today, the JAL Group filed an application with the Japanese Ministry of Land Infrastructure, and Transport (MLIT) requesting a revision of IATA international normal and PEX airfares applicable for Japan departures.

Based on agreements adopted at IATA Tariff Coordinating Conferences held during the year, the revision will lead to increases in the price of IATA international normal and PEX airfares, as well as normal and PEX airfare weekend surcharges for flights departing Japan.

The revision will take effect from April 1, 2007, pending government approval.

Example IATA International Normal Airfare % Increase

Travel from Japan to	IATA Normal Fare	Fare Increase %	Note
North America	F / C / Y	7%	Y2 fare remains unchanged
Europe / Middle East	F / C / Y	5%
Guam	F / C / Y	7%
India	F / C / Y	5%
China / Korea / Southeast Asia	F / C / Y	7%
Oceania	F	2%	Y fare remains unchanged
	C	5%

Example IATA International Normal Airfare Weekend Increase

Travel from Japan to:	IATA Fare type	One-way	Round-trip*
Europe / Middle East/ North America	Normal	JPY 6,000	JPY 12,000
China / India / Southeast Asia	Normal	JPY2,000	JPY 4,000

* Outbound and inbound flight departures both occur on the weekend

Example Business Class Round-trip IATA Normal Fare Increase

Round-trip Travel from Tokyo to	Current			Revised
	Weekday	Weekend Surcharge	Weekend	Weekday	Weekend Surcharge	Weekend
New York	693,400	48,000	741,400	742,000	60,000	802,000
London	893,200	48,000	941,200	937,900	60,000	997,900
Hong Kong	221,400	24,000	245,400	236,900	28,000	264,900

###

