

JAL Increase Flight Frequency on Nagoya- Tianjin Route

Tokyo, Thursday January 11, 2007: JAL has decided to increase flight frequency on the Nagoya – Tianjin route from March 1, 2007, subject to government approval.

Due to strong business passenger, and cargo demand on this route, JAL will increase flight frequency between these two cities from 2 to 5 flights per week from March 1, 2007.

The airline currently offers passengers round-trip services between Nagoya's Chubu International Airport and Tianjin, departing every Tuesday and Friday. Once flight frequency is increased, passengers will also be able to travel between the cities on Mondays, Thursdays and Sundays.

JAL first started flying on the Nagoya – Tianjin route on April 20, 1998.

To accommodate this increase in flight frequency on the Nagoya – Tianjin route, JAL will reduce flight frequency on its Nagoya – Beijing route from 5 to 2 flights per week.

Full details of the changes are as follows:
