Note: Figures have been truncated and percentages are rounded off to the first decimal place.

The world and Japanese economy have rapidly declined since January 2020 with the spread of COVID-19 and have stagnated globally in the First Quarter period of FY2020. The airline industry has been unprecedentedly affected to fall into very difficult circumstances. The worldwide spread of COVID-19 infection has imposed severe restriction on international travel globally, causing the international passenger demand to almost disappear. Upon the declaration of the State of Emergency on April 7 in Japan, the domestic passenger demand also fell rapidly and unprecedentedly as inter-prefecture travel was strongly discouraged by the government.

In some countries and areas, the spread of COVID-19 infection has weakened, however, many countries and areas still show no sign of slowing down of the spread, which makes the recovery of international passenger demand unforeseeable. On the other hand, after inter-prefecture domestic travel was allowed in Japan from June 19, the domestic passenger demand has been gradually recovering. The Japanese society is still struggling to find how to resume economic activities with infection prevention measures, thus it is expected to take more time for the domestic passenger demand to make a full recovery.

Amid this business environment, securing safety for our passengers and employees as the first priority, the JAL group has been seeking to fulfill its responsibilities as public transportation operator by sustaining domestic air transport network for passengers who needs to travel. Also, it operated chartered rescue flights between Thailand, India, Russia, the United States, China and Japan for those who wanted to return to their homelands. To ensure safety and security, the JAL group has implemented hygiene measures such as asking for cooperation from passengers to take temperature check before boarding and to keep social distances, regular and frequent disinfecting of airport facilities and aircrafts, and wearing face masks and face guards to prevent infection.

To this rapidly-decreasing demand, we are making continuous efforts of reducing our capacity to minimize our operating cost, together with fixed cost restructuring by in-sourcing operations instead of outsourcing, reducing IT expenditure and reducing personnel cost including bonus cut. The cost reduction targets that we have disclosed earlier are most likely to be achieved, hence, we will make a further cost reduction to cover the effect on our performance of slow demand recovery. For cargo operation, most of airlines reduced their cargo capacity by cancellation of flights and the demand-supply situation became tightened. In such circumstances, the JAL Group has been striving to support logistics domestically and globally by operating passenger aircraft for cargo flights to carry medical supplies such as medical masks or protective clothing. As the passenger and flight number decreases, the workload of employees that are closely related to flight operation also decreases. The JAL Group uses this occasion for further growth, once COVID-19 infection ends, by reviewing operation manuals or enhancing training to improve each employee's ability.

In the current unprecedented situation, the Japanese government assists the airline industry with public support including deferral or exemption of landing fees and jet fuel tax. We would like to show our sincere gratitude for the support.

We will ensure flight safety and prevention of further spread of COVID-19. With those supports, we will pursue further cost reduction and then survive this hardship and prepare for recovery.

The JAL group will continue to reduce operating costs and to increase its revenue as much as possible with keeping a close eye on the passenger travel demand, considering the spread of COVID-19 in Japan and the world, and the outlook of the world and Japanese economy.

As a result of the above, the available seat kilometers (ASK) for International Passenger Business in the first quarter decreased by 91.7% year over year, its passenger traffic decreased by 98.6% year over year, its revenue passenger kilometers (RPK) decreased by 98.3% year over year, and the load factor decreased to 17.5%. Likewise, the available seat kilometers (ASK) for Domestic Passenger Business decreased by 64.2% year over year, its passenger traffic decreased by 86.7% year over year, its revenue passenger kilometers (RPK) decreased by 86.9% year over year, and the load factor decreased to 28.3%.

Financial results for each segment are as follows.

Air Transportation Segment

In the first quarter period, Revenue in Air Transportation Segment decreased by 77.9% year on year to 70.2 billion yen and the loss before investing, financing and income tax (hereinafter referred as "Segment profit (or loss)") was 130.7 billion yen (segment profit 16.8 billion yen in the same period in the previous year).

(Revenue and Segment profit (or loss) are before elimination of transactions between segments.)

The international passenger revenue was 2.7 billion yen, or down 97.9 % year over year.

The domestic passenger revenue was 18.9 billion yen, or down 85.1 % year over year.

The cargo and mail revenue was 26.5 billion yen, or up16.9 % year over year.

- 5. From FY2020, upon the application of IFRS, passengers flying with mileage award tickets are included as fare-paying passengers, and those passengers are included in Revenue passenger carried, Revenue passenger km and Revenue passenger-load factor. These changes are reflected in the corresponding figures in FY2019.
- 6. For International Revenue passenger carried and International Revenue passenger km, Japan Airline's sales with codeshare flights operated by oneworld alliance member carriers except joint venture partners is excluded from FY2020. This change is also reflected in the corresponding figures in FY2019.

(2) Explanation of Financial Position

(Assets, liabilities and net asset)

The assets in first quarter period increased by 55.1 billion yen from the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year to 2 trillion and 37.3billion yen. Out of the current assets, Cash and Cash equivalents increased by 65.1 billion yen due to swift capital-raising to the total of 394.3 billion yen. Trade and other receivables decreased by 19.5 billion yen due to the decrease of International Passenger Revenue. Then, Current assets increased by 41.8 billion yen from the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year to 550.2 billion yen. Non-current assets increased by 13.2 billion yen through the increase of Deferred tax assets to 1 trillion and 487.1 billion yen.

The liabilities increased by 136.3 billion yen from the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year to 1 trillion and 68.9 billion yen due to the capital raising of approximately 230 billion yen to ensure enough liquidity at hand.

The equity decreased by 81.2 billion yen from the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year to 968.4 billion yen, as a result of loss attributable to owner of the parent of 93.7 billion yen.

The JAL Group has taken steps to raise capital backed by its strong financial position, and has borrowed, as of date, an additional approximately 300 billion yen from financial institutions since February 2020 when the spread of COVID-19 became apparent, in several countries. We have also secured a 200 billion yen credit line that remains unused as of today. As result, we have flexibly raised capital totaling approximately 500 billion yen since February 2020 and will have necessary liquidity at hand for the time being.

We will continue to make every effort to secure liquidity at hand and promptly implement financial policies that contribute to the stabilization of management.

(Outline of Cash Flows)

Cash and cash equivalents at end of first quarter period increased by 65.1 billion yen from the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year to 394.3 billion yen.

1 Cash Flows from Operating Activities

As a total of quarterly loss before tax of 134.3 billion yen, non-cash expenses like depreciation, retirement benefit liability, and Trade and other payables and receivables, cash flow from operating activities (outflow) was 130.2 billion yen (cash inflow of 56.6 billion yen in the same period of the previous year).

② Cash Flows from Investing Activities

Cash flow from investing activities (outflow) was 25.1 billion yen mainly due to acquisition of Fixed assets (cash outflow of 49.4 billion yen in the same period of the previous year).

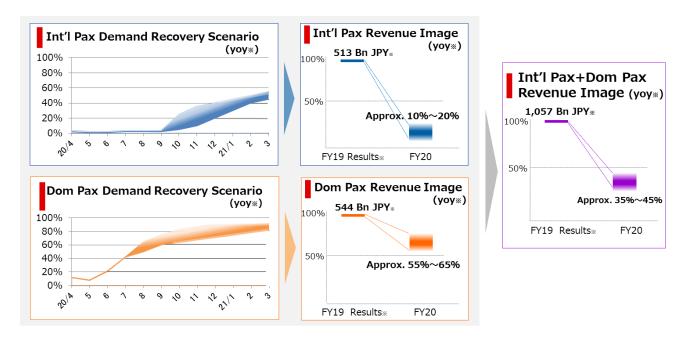

② Cash Flows from Financing Activities

Cash flow from financing activities (inflow) was 220.4 billion yen mainly due to long term debts (cash outflow of 37.1 billion yen in the same period of the previous year).

(3) Explanations of Forecast of Consolidated Financial Results

At present, it is difficult to disclose a forecast of consolidated earnings for the fiscal year ending March 2021, because these figures may significantly fluctuate depending on circumstances when the negative impacts of COVID-19 are settled and international and domestic passenger demand recover.

However, we would like to show the following simulation to present what extent International Passenger Revenue and Domestic Passenger Revenue would change in certain scenarios of different passenger demand recovery trends as a year-on-year analysis. We applied certain assumptions in calculating the values, using the percentage figures of FY2019 financial results ($\frac{1}{2}$).

The demand recover trend is not clear enough for us to express our estimate yet, but based on the above assumptions, the total revenue of both International Passenger and Domestic Passenger might decline to an around 35% ~45% level year on year in FY2020 (\divideontimes). Taking into account the other revenue and further cost reduction including fixed costs, profit, as EBIT basis, might also decline by approximately 50% of the revenue decline.

Note: Even if the assumptions do not change, passenger revenues may not end at figures indicated in the above table. * FY2019 Results is the revised forecast that was disclosed at FY2019Q3 Financial Results disclosed on Jan. 31, 2020

The consolidated financial earnings forecast will be disclosed immediately when the business environments becomes foreseeable to a certain extent.

(4) Dividends

Due to the spread of COVID-19 since February 2020, the airline industry including the JAL Group has been severely affected. As a result, EBIT decreased to loss of 131 billion yen. Yet, it is unclear when the COVID-19 spread would abate and diminish. Considering the above, we determined to pursue liquidity at hand as our first priority. Therefore, we regret that we have determined not to pay interim dividends. We sincerely apologize to our shareholders and investors and would like to ask for their understanding amid the very difficult situation that we are currently in.

For the forecast of the year-end dividends per share and the total dividends per share for the fiscal year ending March 2021, it will be undetermined because the impact of the new coronavirus on JAL's performance is not foreseeable at this moment.

The JAL Group operates "Air Transportation", mainly in passenger and baggage carriage or mail and cargo handling in both international and domestic routes, and "Other" business.

Revenues arising out of these businesses are recognized in accordance with contracts with customers, and there is no significant financing component in the contracts.. None of consideration in contracts with customers is not reflected in transaction prices. The JAL Group operates a customer loyalty program called "JAL Mileage Bank". Members in the JAL Mileage Bank can collect miles through flights with the airlines in JAL Group or other services, and can redeem them for flights with JAL group or other partners' services. Miles that are expected to be redeemed are identified as performance obligations, and deferred on the statement of financial position as a contract liability. When miles are redeemed for services, revenue is recognized in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income. A transaction price allocated as performance obligations of miles is determined on the basis of a ratio of the stand-alone selling price of each service.

Air Transportation

In the air transportation business segment, the JAL Group provides services related to the international and domestic transportation of passengers, cargo & mail and baggage on aircraft. The main revenues are recognized as follows.

Passenger operations

Passenger revenue is mainly revenue earned from passenger transportation services using aircraft. The JAL Group has the obligation to provide customers with international and domestic air transportation services according to the Conditions of Carriage. The performance obligation is satisfied upon completion of the passenger's air transportation service. The transaction price may fluctuate because we may offer discounts when selling tickets or pay incentives based on the amount of sales. In addition, consideration for a transaction is generally received in advance at a point in time before the performance obligation is satisfied.

Cargo and mail-service operations

Cargo and mail revenues are mainly revenues earned from air cargo and air mail handling operations. The JAL Group has the obligation to provide international and domestic cargo and mail transportation services. The performance obligation is satisfied upon completion of cargo and mail air transportation. The amount of variable consideration including revenue is not significant.. Consideration for a transaction is generally received after the completion of cargo and mail air transportation.

Luggage operations

Baggage revenue is mainly revenue earned from baggage transportation services that accompany passenger transportation on aircraft. The JAL Group has the obligation to provide customers with international and domestic air transportation services. The performance obligation is satisfied upon completion of baggage air transportation. Sales including variable consideration is the amount of variable consideration including revenue is not significant. Consideration for a transaction is generally received on the day of baggage transportation.

Other

In "Other" businesses, we are mainly engaged in planning and sales of air travel package tour and a credit card business.

(Segment Information)

(1) Overview of segment reporting

The reportable segments of the JAL Group are components of the Company about which separate financial information is available and evaluated regularly by the Board of Directors in deciding how to allocate resources and evaluating business performance.

The main business operations of the JAL Group are scheduled and nonscheduled international and domestic air transportation services. Therefore, the JAL Group recognizes the "air transportation business" as the reportable segment.
