- Please take a look at the page 3 of our IR material.
- In the First Half of Fiscal year 2023, our revenue was 820.9 Billion Yen, which is a 202.4 billion yen increase year on year, due to the steady recovery of passenger demand. This is also 72 billion more than the pre-Covid level of FY2019 revenue.
- EBIT was 91.2 billion yen, which exceeded our initial plan by about 40 billion yen.
- Net profit was 61.6 billion yen.
- Taking into account the strong international passenger demand, we revise our profit forecast upwardly to EBIT of 130 billion yen and Net Profit of 80 billion yen.
- Annual dividend per share will be increased to 60 yen per share as well, of which we have decided the interim dividend will be 30 yen per share.
- We will aim for further profit increase.

FY2023Q2 Performance by Business Domain

- Revenue and EBIT improved significantly, driven by Full Service Carrier
- ✓ LCC's EBIT turned profitable. Mileage, Lifestyle and Infrastructure steadily recorded profit

⁽¹⁾ Mileage, Lifestyle and Infrastructure = Travel Agency, Mileage, Ground Handling etc.

⁽²⁾ Others = Gain on Sales of Aircraft, Other Income, Share of Profit or Loss of Investment and Income/Expenses from Investment

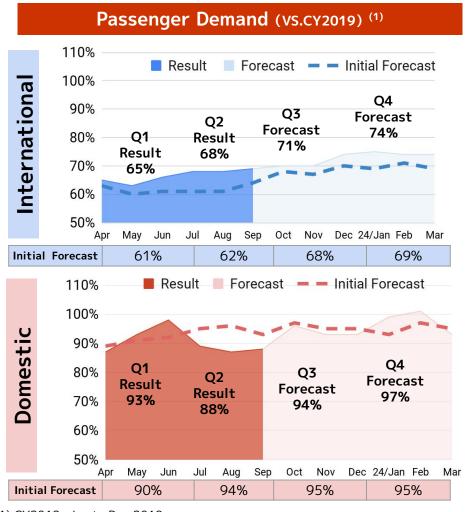

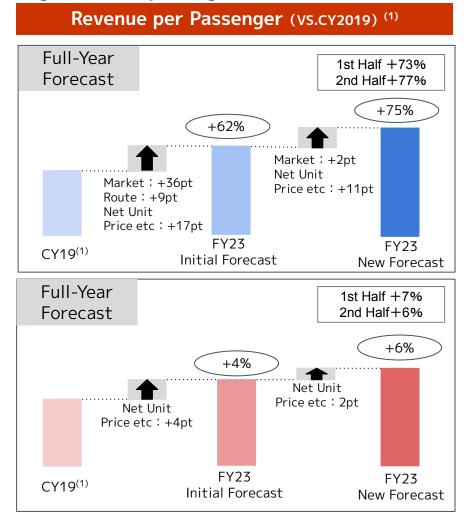

- This page shows the details of the revised consolidated financial results forecast for the full year.
- Revenues are expected to exceed the initial forecast by 26 billion yen, reflecting the recent strong passenger demand and the weaker-than-expected cargo business situations. Expenses are expected to decrease by 4 billion yen from the initial forecast, reflecting a decrease in fuel costs in the first half of this year. Fuel costs are expected to decrease by 10 billion yen and expenses other than fuel costs to increase by 6 billion yen from the initial forecast.
- As a result, we forecast a revenue of 1,684 billion yen, EBIT of 130 billion yen, and net profit of 80 billion yen.
- As for EBIT by business domain for the full year basis, we expect 80 billion yen in the Full Service Carrier Business Domain, 3 billion yen in the LCC Business Domain, and 47 billion yen in the Mileage, Lifestyle and Infrastructure Business Domain respectively.

Premises of Performance Forecast for FY2023 Int'l & Domestic Passenger Operations (Full Service Carrier)

- ✓ Int'l pax revenue expected to exceed initial forecast with larger pax number & higher unit price
- ✓ Domestic pax expected to exceed initial forecast through flexible pricing

- This page shows the assumptions used for the consolidated financial results forecast for the full year.
- We assume that international passenger demand will recover to 71% from the 2019 level in the third quarter and 74% in the fourth quarter.
- Domestic passenger demand is expected to recover to 94% from the 2019 level in the third quarter and 97% in the fourth quarter.
- We also expect to maintain and stretch the unit price for both international and domestic flights through appropriate revenue management measures as passenger demand grows.

Excludes temporal costs and variable factors, etc

- (1) Services = Expenses regarding inflight services, airport lounges, cargo equipment, etc. (2) Other variable cost = Travel agency, Mileage, Ground handling etc.
- (3) Includes costs that have variable factors such as the number of flights and passengers, and temporary and additional costs associated with business structural reforms.
- (4) Actual Fixed Costs excludes the variable factors such as the number of flights and passengers, and temporary and additional costs associated with business structural reforms.

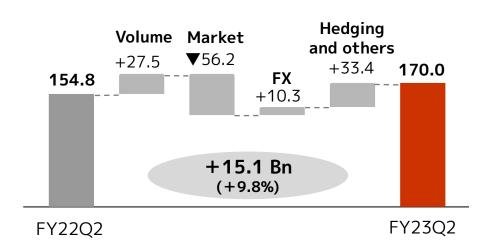

- This page shows the breakdown of the cost.
- Total operating expenses increased by 99.2 billion yen from the previous year to 736.6 billion yen, due to the impact of market conditions such as the depreciation of Yen, as well as an increase in expenses linked to the scale of operations and the number of passengers carried.
- The actual fixed cost was 248.5 billion yen. We will continue to implement appropriate cost control.
