

JAL GROUP TO CHANGE HOLDING COMPANY NAME

Tokyo, February 18: The JAL Group today announced that from June 6, 2004, the JAL Group holding company currently known as Japan Airlines System Corporation will be renamed Japan Airlines Corporation.

Japan Airlines System Corporation was created in October 2002 as a holding company to supervise the integration of Japan Airlines and Japan Air System. The integration will be complete from April 1, 2004, when the present Japan Airlines becomes Japan Airlines International Company Ltd., responsible for international air transport business - and Japan Air System becomes Japan Airlines Domestic Company Ltd., handling domestic air transport operations. Airport counters and staff uniforms have been unified under the JAL brand and all flights from April 1 will carry JAL flight numbers.

Accordingly, the JAL Group has decided on the holding company name change to Japan Airlines Corporation to emphasize the JAL brand identity

Original plan – from April 1, 2004

JAPAN AIRLINES SYSTEM CORPORATION
Japan Airlines International Co. Ltd.	Japan Airlines Domestic Co. Ltd.

Revised plan – effective June 2004 after the Annual General Meeting of shareholders (late June, not confirmed)

JAPAN AIRLINES CORPORATION
Japan Airlines International Co. Ltd.	Japan Airlines Domestic Co. Ltd.
